LOEX 42nd Annual Conference Amway Grand Plaza Hotel Grand Rapids, Michigan

The Fifth Third River Bank Run will take place in downtown Grand Rapids on Saturday, May 10, 2014. This is a large annual event that draws over 20,000 participants and includes the largest 25K road race in the country. The first race starts at 7am and once roads start closing at 6:45am, moving around to destinations becomes very difficult. During the race, many downtown streets including expressway ramps will be closed.

Please follow the attached map and directions to access the Amway Grand Plaza on race day. Access from the west will be open before 6:45 AM and after 10:00 AM. During the race, police will allow vehicles into the Amway Grand Plaza when there are no runners present. Expect long delays if arriving after 6:45 AM.
