

Please customize PowerPoint presentations to your preference (images, font, colors, design elements, layout, etc.) but the following three (3) types of slides should be included at the beginning of every instruction class:

- Title slide with course name, title of session, your name, date, and any other relevant introductory information
- “Who I am” slide introducing the librarian with current photo, title, office location, and contact information
- Agenda with what will be covered during the session and the main goal(s)/outcome(s) of the class
